

Crime SOLUTIONS.gov

RELIABLE RESEARCH. REAL RESULTS.

The National Institute of Justice's CrimeSolutions.gov uses proven research to determine what works in criminal justice, juvenile justice and crime victim services.

Topics

CrimeSolutions.gov content is organized a variety of programs that have been reviewed by CrimeSolutions.gov, also captured on the topical pages. Following are the topics:

- Abuse
- Forensics
- Victimization
- Correctional Treatment
- Community Corrections
- Inmate Programs & Treatment
- Recidivism
- Reentry/Release
- Courts
- Diversion
- Sentencing & Sanctions
- Specialized & Problem Solving Courts
- Crime & Crime Prevention
- Community Crime Prevention Strategies
- Gangs
- Property Crime
- Violent Crime
- Drugs & Substance Abuse
- Drug & Alcohol

FAQs

Following are some frequently asked questions associated with your program:

- Are programs implemented and evaluated out of state?
- Can I cite the CrimeSolutions.gov review of my program?
- Can I establish a link to the CrimeSolutions.gov review on my website?
- Can I share information with the Office of Justice Programs or other content from the CrimeSolutions.gov website?
- How can I become a CrimeSolutions.gov Study Program?
- How can I provide feedback about CrimeSolutions.gov?
- How can I reference the CrimeSolutions.gov review of my program?
- How do I express concerns about a program?

All Programs

Showing 1 to 50 of 270 entries

Title	Evidence Rating
Adolescent Community Reinforcement Approach
Adolescent Transitions Program
Aggression Replacement Training® (ART®)

- Use "Advanced Search" to filter results by topic, age, demographic and more.
- Sort programs by evidence rating.

EVIDENCE RATINGS

EFFECTIVE
Strong evidence indicates these programs achieved intended outcomes when implemented with fidelity.

PROMISING
Some evidence indicates these programs achieved intended outcomes. Additional research recommended.

NO EFFECTS
Strong evidence indicates these programs did not achieve intended outcomes when implemented with fidelity.